Hans Lapping is an AV-rated shareholder in Miller Starr Regalia's Walnut Creek office, where his practice focuses on complex commercial real estate transactions.

For over 25 years, Hans has represented institutional clients in leasing, buying, and selling virtually every type of real estate. From acquiring raw land for retail, office, residential and data center projects to assisting some of the world's largest technology companies with office and R&D leasing to representing national and regional landlords and tenants in retail leases, his representations regularly include negotiating and drafting complex real estate related contracts, coordinating due diligence, and closing transactions.

A recognized authority in the field, Hans speaks frequently on real estate law topics such as purchase and sale agreements and commercial leasing. He has presented to legal and industry groups such as the American College of Estate Lawyers, ICSC and CoreNet Global, and he is a regular faculty member at continuing legal education seminars for both new and experienced practitioners.
