Hans Lapping is an AV-rated transactional shareholder in Miller Starr Regalia's Walnut Creek office. His practice focuses on retail, office, and industrial leasing and real property acquisitions and dispositions.

Hans represents many institutional clients in leasing, buying, and selling virtually every type of real estate. From acquiring raw land for development projects to assisting some of the world's largest technology companies with office, industrial and research and development leasing to representing national landlords and tenants in retail, office and industrial leases, his representations regularly include negotiating and drafting real estate related contracts, coordinating due diligence, and closing transactions.

Hans currently serves as a member of the firm's Executive and Compensation Committees and has previously served as the Co-Chair of the firm's Transactional Department and a member of the Hiring Committee.

Hans enjoys traveling and skiing with his wife and three boys; oftentimes combining both interests at the same time. Hans is also an avid hockey fan and a fan of whatever sports his kids are playing at the time.
