Jeff has worked as a transactional attorney for over thirty years and serves as of counsel at Miller Starr Regalia. He advises developers on common interest development and land use matters.

Jeff has over thirty years of experience in representing developers in preparing governing documents for residential, commercial, and mixed-use developments and related easement and land sharing agreements, and assisting clients in obtaining local and state project approvals.

The developments include high-rise mixed-use condominium projects, gated golf course communities, senior housing projects, cohousing communities, and stock and limited equity cooperatives. He advises clients regarding issues related to the Subdivision Map Act, Subdivided Lands Act, Davis-Stirling Act, and the Right to Repair Law (SB 800).
