MILLER STARR REGALIA

General Corporate Transactions, Entity Formations & Joint Ventures

Regalia’s Business Law Practice Group provides skilled representation in matters ranging from entity formation and taxation to the negotiation and financing of complex transactions.

Working closely with our clients allows us to fully understand and help our clients to achieve their objectives. We represent companies in all stages of development from start-ups to seasoned entities. Our services include drafting shareholder, management, employment and operating agreements, advising on mergers and acquisitions, and negotiation and documentation of joint ventures.

Miller Starr Regalia Business Law Group has experience in regulatory and licensing issues, as well as bankruptcy law. By combining our broad expertise with close attention to clients’ needs, we excel at facilitating transactions and assisting in negotiating optimal possible outcomes.

Our transactional attorneys are backed by a strong litigation team, who is adept at reaching timely solutions through the courts and alternative dispute resolution.
