The International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) U.S. Law Conference provides retail real estate legal professionals the opportunity to gain industry-specific knowledge and insight from leading authorities.

Miller Starr Regalia Shareholder Michael Di Geronimo to co-present “Just Dropped In (to See What Condition My Commission Was In) — Structuring Listing Agreements, Commission Agreements and Property Management Agreements” at the virtual ICSC U.S. Law Conference from 8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. (PST) on Friday, October 16, 2020. This workshop will examine an array of matters relating to commercial real estate brokers and property managers, including: licensing requirements for brokers and property managers; market terms of commissions paid to tenant rep brokers and listing agents; common issues in commission agreements and listing agreements; the typical structure and terms of property management agreements. Practical consideration and tips will be offered on structuring commission arrangements and setting up the relationship between a property owner and a property manager. These issues will be looked at from the perspectives of landlord, owners, tenants and brokers.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 14, 2020 – Friday, October 16, 2020
