Miller Starr Regalia (MSR), a preeminent California real estate law firm for more than 50 years, today announced seven attorneys across four practice areas are among the 2022 Northern California Super Lawyers. Four other MSR's attorneys in three practice groups are among Super Lawyers' 2022 Rising Stars.

"We are delighted Super Lawyers has again recognized our talented attorneys for their strong results in real estate, environmental litigation, land use and zoning, and business litigation, " said Ella K. Gower, Miller Starr Regalia's managing shareholder. "We also congratulate our four rising stars who distinguished themselves in our real estate, land use and zoning, and litigation practices. Recognition from our peers is very gratifying."

The MSR attorneys honored in 2022 are:

2022 Northern California Super Lawyers

- Andrew H. Crowl, Real Estate -- Crowl advises common interest developments and homeowners associations.
- Nicholas E. Ma, Business Litigation -- Ma has significant experience defending clients in business and real estate litigation matters.
- Timothy G. Maes, Real Estate -- Maes represents tenants and landlords in commercial leasing matters and buyers and sellers in acquisition/disposition transactions. He also facilitates transactions through due diligence investigations, obtaining required third-party and anchor approvals, and negotiating and drafting agreements.

Super Lawyers publishes lists of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The selection process includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations. Only five percent of lawyers in a state are chosen each year as Super Lawyers and only 2.5 percent are chosen each year as Rising Stars.

Miller Starr Regalia
Miller Starr Regalia has had a well-established reputation as a leading real estate law firm for more than fifty years. For nearly all that time, our firm has written Miller & Starr, California Real Estate 4th, a 12-volume treatise on California real estate law. We call it “the Book.” The Book is the most widely used and judicially recognized real estate treatise in California and is cited by practicing attorneys and courts throughout the state. Our firm has experience in all real property matters, including full-service litigation and dispute resolution services, transactions, acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, common interest development, construction, management, title insurance, environmental law, and land use.
