Miller Starr Regalia Names Angela Yu Shareholder in Litigation Department

Related Lawyers: Angela Yu

Related Practices: Commercial & Business Litigation

Miller Starr Regalia (MSR), a preeminent California real estate law firm for more than 50 years, announced today that Angela J. Yu has been promoted to shareholder in the firm's Litigation Department. Yu joined MSR as an associate in 2019 in the firm's Walnut Creek headquarters.

"Angela has made significant contributions to our litigation department, has demonstrated a command of complex issues and a dedication to assisting clients in reaching their litigation goals. We value her broad experience in litigation and the contributions she's brought to our firm, and look forward to a bright future here for Angela," said Ella K. Gower, Miller Starr Regalia's managing shareholder.

Yu focuses her practice on complex business litigation in both federal and state courts. From 2014 through 2019, she was recognized as a "Northern California Super Lawyer - Rising Star" in Business Litigation.

"It is an honor to be elevated to shareholder at Miller Starr Regalia. In the more than three years that I've been with the firm, I've developed a respect and pride in our collaborative culture and dedication to providing top-flight service to our clients as we partner with them to solve complex and challenging matters. I look forward to further contributing to our success, and welcome the new challenges we will face together," said Yu.

MSR's Litigation Department represents Fortune 500 companies, governmental agencies, developers, homebuilders, financial institutions, title insurers, property owners and managers, retailers, media companies, manufacturers, REITs and smaller companies in a variety of matters related to business, real property, commercial, environmental, construction and insurance-related disputes.
