Miller Starr Regalia (MSR), a preeminent California real estate law firm for more than 60 years, announced today the addition of Jocelyn Lin to the firm's Transactional Department. She joins the firm's Walnut Creek headquarters office as an associate.

Lin is an experienced transactional attorney with years of experience supporting transactions at all stages, including drafting agreements, and conducting due diligence and document review. Most recently, she worked in the Real Property practice group of Davis Wright Tremaine LLP. Earlier in her career, she was an associate at Cadwalader, Wickersham and Taft, LLP, where she began as a summer associate.

"Jocelyn's experience will complement our Transactional Department very well and provide us with additional bench strength," said Xavier L. Gutierrez, chair of Miller Starr Regalia's Transactional Department. "She has an impressive resume, and we're very happy she has chosen to join MSR."

Lin earned her J.D. from the New York University School of Law, where she was the senior articles editor of the Journal of Law and Business. She graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt University with a B.A. in political science and with honors in economics.

"We are pleased to welcome Jocelyn to our MSR family. She will be a great asset to our Transactional Department," said Ella K. Gower, MSR's Managing Shareholder.

MSR's Transactional Department assists clients involved in all aspects of the commercial real estate industry, including many of the world's largest technology companies. The firm represents developers and owners as well as tenants of commercial office, retail, mixed-use, hospitality, warehouse, data center, industrial, and residential projects of all sizes; national and regional retailers; restaurant chains; banks and other financial institutions; and real estate management companies and entrepreneurs. The firm structures, negotiates, and documents complex transactions throughout the United States and overseas.

Miller Starr Regalia

Miller Starr Regalia has had a well-established reputation as a leading real estate law firm for more than sixty-years. For nearly all that time, our firm has written Miller & Starr, California Real Estate 4th, a 12-volume treatise on California real estate law. We call it "the Book." The Book is the most-widely used and judicially-recognized real estate treatise in California and is cited by practicing attorneys and courts throughout the state. Our firm has experience in all real property matters, including full-service litigation and dispute resolution services, transactions, acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, common interest development, construction, management, title insurance, environmental law, and land use.
