Seven Miller Starr Regalia Lawyers Named 2025 Northern California Super Lawyers

Related Lawyers: F. Gale Connor, Arthur F. Coon, Hans Lapping, Basil “Bill” Shiber, Samantha Chen, Nicholas Ma, James Swearingen

Miller Starr Regalia (MSR), a preeminent California real estate and land use law firm for more than 60 years, today announced that four of its shareholders are included in the 2025 Northern California Super Lawyers list. Three additional lawyers Samantha L. Chen, associate; Nicholas E. Ma, shareholder and James Swearingen, shareholder; were included in the Rising Stars list.

“We are incredibly proud to see our attorneys recognized as Northern California Super Lawyers,” said Ella K. Gower, Miller Starr Regalia’s managing shareholder. “This honor reflects the depth of talent across our firm and the exceptional service our lawyers provide for our clients every day. It’s especially gratifying to see both well-established attorneys and emerging attorneys acknowledged for their excellence.”

Super Lawyers publishes lists of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The selection process includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations. Only five percent of lawyers in a state are chosen each year as Super Lawyers and only 2.5 percent are chosen each year as Rising Stars.

Miller Starr Regalia

Miller Starr Regalia has had a well-established reputation as a leading real estate law firm for more than sixty-years. For nearly all that time, our firm has written Miller & Starr, California Real Estate 4th, a 12-volume treatise on California real estate law. We call it “the Book.” The Book is the most-widely used and judicially-recognized real estate treatise in California and is cited by practicing attorneys and courts throughout the state. Our firm has experience in all real property matters, including full-service litigation and dispute resolution services, transactions, acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, common interest development, construction, management, title insurance, environmental law, and land use.
