Miller Starr Regalia (MSR), a premier California real estate and land use law firm, is proud to announce its inclusion in the Chambers Spotlight California 2026 Guide by Chambers and Partners, marking the first year the firm has received this distinguished recognition.

Now in its second year, the Chambers Spotlight California Guide highlights small and mid?sized law firms . The 2026 edition recognizes 376 ranked firms across nine regions and 45 distinct practice areas throughout California..

Built on the same rigorous, independent research methodology that has defined Chambers for more than 30 years and established it as the global gold standard in legal rankings, the Chambers Spotlight Guide showcases firms that consistently deliver exceptional results within their local and regional markets. In?house counsel and companies seeking high?quality, locally focused legal representation rely on the Spotlight Guide as a trusted resource, as do larger law firms looking to refer clients to regional or specialized experts.

Miller Starr Regalia's inclusion in the Chambers Spotlight California 2026 Guide reflects the firm's long?standing commitment to excellence in California real estate and land use law.

About Miller Starr Regalia

Miller Starr Regalia has a well?established reputation as a leading real estate law firm for more than sixty years. For nearly all that time, the firm has written Miller & Starr, California Real Estate (4th Edition), a 12?volume treatise on California real estate law known simply as "the Book." The Book is the most widely used and judicially recognized real estate treatise in California and is cited by practicing attorneys and courts throughout the state.

The firm represents clients in all aspects of real property law, including full?service litigation and dispute resolution, transactions, acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, common interest development, construction, management, title insurance, environmental law, and land use. The firm has argued numerous cases that have shaped real estate and land use law in California at every level, including the California Supreme Court.
