As a litigation shareholder, Amy is known for her proven trial record in representing owners, developers, landowners, and financial institutions in a wide range of real estate matters. Amy is past Chair of the Litigation Department and has received numerous industry honors.

Amy Matthew is a litigation shareholder in Miller Starr Regalia's Walnut Creek office. Amy represents business entities in a wide range of litigation matters, including land development, construction, real property claims, general commercial disputes, and insurance bad faith. Amy has a proven trial record, having successfully tried and arbitrated numerous cases, while resolving the majority of disputes through the mediation process on behalf of corporate owners, developers, REITs, homebuilders, landowners, and financial institutions.

Most notably, Amy represented a corporate manufacturer and distributor seeking insurance policy benefits in multi-phased court proceedings over a two-year period, resulting in settlements totaling $2,200,000,000.

Amy has twice served as Chair of the Litigation Department and routinely serves on the firm's Executive Committee.
