Alexis assumes multiple roles when advising public and private companies in connection with corporate and financial transactions. As a leader, negotiator and trusted partner, his experience spans the corporate lifecycle.

Alexis Sinclair is a transactional associate in Miller Starr Regalia's San Francisco office. Alexis represents emerging growth, public and private companies (including Fortune 500 as well as middle market companies), investment funds, business development companies and financial institutions. Alexis has broad-based experience advising and negotiating mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, joint ventures and other affiliation relationships, syndicated loans, cross-border transactions, acquisition financing, restructuring transactions, investment management transactions, corporate governance (including the formation of entities) and general corporate transactions (including commercial contracts) and has extensive experience in managing legal teams and project timelines.

Prior to practicing law, Alexis worked in Latin America where he focused on business development for a warehouse equipment company as well as formed partnerships for the installation of warehouse systems and sourcing of products. Alexis was also a brand manager for a pet food manufacturer and was responsible for a line of specialized foods developed for sale by veterinarians. In this role, Alexis developed partnerships with national and regional distributors to veterinary clinics for the sale of the specialized foods and provided customer service to the clinics.
